TOPIC Military Information from the Letaline Heath Troop Training Grounds and Hillersleben EVALUATION 25X1 PLACE OBTAINED 25X1 DATE OF CONTENT 5 to 20 October 1952 DATE OBTAINED 25X1 REFERENCES 25X1 PAGES 2 ENCLOSUFES (NO. & TOPE). REMARKS Surmary of paragraphs 3, h and 5 tess provide saly report (N. 53/7 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnet. Washington to the content of t	COUNTRY Fast Germany	-esferation = 2003/0 25X	8/12 CIA-RDP82-0 0457	25X1	1	25X
DATE OF CONVENT 5 to 20 October 1052 DATE OF CONVENT 5 to 20 October 1052 DATE OBTAINED	TOPIC Military Info	ormation from the Le	tzling Heath Troop 1	Training Grounds	and
DATE OF CONTENT. 5 to 20 October 1052 DATE DATE OF CONTENT. 5 to 20 October 1052 DATE DATE DATE DATE DATE DATE DATE DATE						*************
DATE OBTAINED	EVALUATION	25X1 PLACE O	BTAINED		2	5X1
REFERENCES 2 ENCLOSUFES (NO. & TWEE). REMARKS Summary of paragraphs 3, h and 5 25X1 25X1 1. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillerslebon (N 53/7 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black equalets including some with tank insigning. Into wearing red-bordered black equalets. Eighty to 100 s-ldiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation. Bight young officers wearing red-bordered black equalets. Eighty to 100 s-ldiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation. Bight young officers wearing red-bordered black equalets with artillery insignia and carrying has are went to the installation from the direction of Validorf. Trucks hauled potatoes to the installation from the direction of Moseberg. 25X1 3. On 20 October, the large wood cam in Born and the wood cam south of Hustian as well as the Flanken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seem wore rod-bordered black ensuled including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio tations, for metres meant were seen north of the word came in Hustian lots of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks personnel wearing red-bordered black ensuled including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio tations, for metres meant meant in Hillersleben, coming from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came in Husten from the direction of the word came	DATE OF CONTENT 5 to	20 October 1952		Street, and the beautiful and the street, and	e annecejos como operaciones	41-4-4-4-4
PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TOPE). REMARKS Summary of paragranhs 3, h and 5 25X1 25X1 1., On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (M 53/Y 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black equilets including sone with tank insigning. Law 7-31/85 tanks stood in front of a sheak Radio stations were noticed. 25X1 25X1 2. On 20 October 952, the barracks installation at the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied. The installation was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epoulets. Eighty to 100 s-ldiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation. Bight young officers wearing red-bordered black epoulets with artillery insignia and carrying baraca went to the installation from the direction of Vahldorf. Trucks 25X1 3. On 20 October, the large wood cum in Horn and the wood came south of installation installation from the direction of Vahldorf. Trucks bauled potatoes to the installation from the direction of Mescherg. 3. On 20 October, the large wood cum in Horn and the wood came south of installation as well as the Planken forcest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seen wore red-bordered black enaulet including sone with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters smart were seen north of the wood came in Horn the direction of Enlievables, coming from the direction of paragraphs of the wood came in Horn the direction of Enlievables, coming from the direction of the wood came in Horn the direction of the wood came in Born. However followed by trucks which also carried bersonnel wearing red-bordered black equalets. The wooden structures were national shut and the tents had been removed except for the wooden frames which were still there. The small camp of bunkers, about h is south of Jaevenite, was vacant. Be guard personnel were seen.	4 44			25 November	1952	Market and the second
25X1		on Fran
25X1 25X1 1. On 70 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (N 53/7 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank insignia. Two T-31/95 tanks stood in front of a shed, Radio stations were noticed. 25X1 2. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied. The installation was guarded by sentries searing red-bordered black epaulets. Eighty to 100 sclaiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of th. Installation. Bight young officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia and carrying bas are went to the installation from the direction of Validorf. Trucks hauled potatoes to the installation from the direction of Mescherg. 25X1 3. On 70 October, the large wood cam in Born and the wood cam south of installations as well as the Flanken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seen work red-bordered black enaulet. Including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters apart were seen north of the wood camp in hietten. The parking lots of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets and towing 120-wm mortars proceeded in the direction of Hillersleben, coming from the direction of the wood camp in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 170m the camps were entrained in Hillersleben rather than Haldenslober. 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp couth of Hottendorf were vacant except for small guard details wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The woods structures were nailed shut and the tents had been removed except for the wooden france which were still there. The small camp of bunkers, about h km south of Jaeventtr, was vacant. No guard personnel were seen. Source noticed between 18 and 20 small bunkers for about 6 to 8 soldiers	S			is a mi	ordered a mo	materir mel
25X1 1. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (M 53/Y 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnet wearing red-berdered black epaulets including some with tank insigning two received field training and instruction on four guns in the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied, The installation was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Eighty to 100 soldiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation. Eight young officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia and carrying bar are wonk to the installation from the direction of Validory. Trucks as well as the Flanken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seem wore red-bordered black enablet including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters mart were seen morth of the wood came in Hillersleben, coming from the direction of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets and towing 120-mm morters proceeded in the direction of Hillersleben, coming from the direction of the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks which were carried breather than Haldensleben. 125X1 1. On 20 October, the hument and tent camp couth of Hottondorf were vacant received in the direction of Hillersleben, coming from the direction of the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks the tanks the tanks which were carried wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wooden structures were nailed shut and the tents had been removed except for the wooden frames which were still there. The shall camp of bunkers, about he me south of Jaevenitz, was vacant. No guard personnel were seen. Source noticed between 18 and 20 small bunkers for about 6 to 8 soldiers.	REMARKS assertation and the second a	and the second s	- The control of the	WATER AND ADDRESS OF A STATE	CARCIDICA TO	JON DEM
25X1 1. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (M 53/Y 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank insignia. Tall/85 tanks atood in front of a shed, Radio stations were noticed. 2. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied, The installation was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets, Eighty to 100 soldiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation, Eight young officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with antillery insignia and carrying has are went to the installation from the direction of Merchers. 25X1 3. On 20 October, the large wood came in Born and the wood came south of Huetten as well as the Planken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seen wore red-bordered black enaulets including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters anart were seen north of the wood came in Born and towing large personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The parking lots of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets. 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for small guard details wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wooden	-		4.5.4	25X1_		Marindon di din di Sanjando algaba.
25X1 1. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (M 53/Y 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank insignia. Tall/85 tanks atood in front of a shed, Radio stations were noticed. 2. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied, The installation was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets, Eighty to 100 soldiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation, Eight young officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with antillery insignia and carrying has are went to the installation from the direction of Merchers. 25X1 3. On 20 October, the large wood came in Born and the wood came south of Huetten as well as the Planken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seen wore red-bordered black enaulets including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters anart were seen north of the wood came in Born and towing large personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The parking lots of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets. 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for small guard details wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks 25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for the wooden	and the street of the street o
25X1 1. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (M 53/1 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank insignia. Two T-3k/95 tanks stood in front of a shed, Radio stations were noticed. 25X1 2. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied, The installation was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Eighty to 100 s-ldiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation. Eight young officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia and carrying bancare went to the installation from the direction of Validorf. Trucks hauled potatoes to the installation from the direction of Meseberg. 25X1 3. On 20 October, the large wood came in Born and the wood came south of Huetten as well as the Planken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seen wore red-bordered black epaulets including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters anart were seen north of the wood came in Heetten. The parking lots of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks carrying personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets and towing 120-am norters proceeded in the direction of Hillersleben, coming from the direction of the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks which also carried borsonnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wooden frames which were still there. The small camp of bunkers, about 4 km south of Jaevenite, was vacant. No guard personnel were seen. 50 Source noticed between 18 and 20 small bunkers for about 6 soudiers.			all building in account
25X1 1. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (M 53/Y 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank insignia. Two T-3k/05 tanks stood in front of a shed, Radio stations were noticed. 25X1 2. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied. The installation was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Eighty to 100 s-lidiers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation, Eight young officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia and carrying bacaras tent to the installation from the direction of Vahldorf. Trucks hauled potatoes to the installation from the direction of Mescherg. 25X1 3. On 20 October, the large wood came in Born and the wood came south of Huetten as well as the Flanken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seen wore red-bordered black enaulet. Individual officers and soldiers seen wore red-bordered black enaulet including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters anart were seen north of the wood came in Heetten. The parking lets of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks carrying personnal wearing red-bordered black epaulets and towing 120-am norters proceeded in the direction of Eillersleben, coming from the direction of the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks which also carried mersonnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wooden structures were nailed shut and the tents had been removed except for the wooden frames which were still there. The small camp of bunkers, about h km south of Jaevenite, was vacant. No guard personnel were seen.
25X1 2. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the west exit of Hillersleben (M 53/7 51) was only lightly occupied by individual officers and personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank insignin. Two T=3k/85 tanks stood in front of a shed, Radio stations were noticed. 2. On 20 October 1952, the barracks installation at the northeast exit of Hillersleben was only lightly occupied. The installation was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Eighty to 100 s-1diers received field training and instruction on four guns in the north section of the installation. Eight young officers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with artiller; insignia and carrying base are went to the installation from the direction of Vahldorf. Trucks hauled potatoes to the installation from the direction of Meseberg. 25X1 3. On 20 October, the large wood cam in Born and the wood came south of Huetban as well as the Planken forest office were vacant except for small guard details. Individual officers and soldiers seen wore red-bordered black enauleta including some with artillery insignia. Two four-mast radio stations, 50 meters amart were seen north of the wood came in Huetten. The parking lots of Camp Born were vacant. Trucks personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets and towing 120-mm nortars proceeded in the direction of Eillersleben, coming from the direction of the wood came in Born. They were followed by trucks Which also carried versonnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wooden structures were nailed shut and the tents had been removed except for the wooden frames which were still there. The small came of burkers, about 4 km south of Jaeventhe, was vacant. No guard personnel were seen. Source noticed between 18 and 20 small bunkers for about 6 to 8 soldiers.					25X	.1
25X1	25X 1	(1)			-
25X1 4. On 20 October, the hutment and tent camp south of Hottendorf were vacant except for small guard details wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wooden structures were nailed shut and the tents had been removed except for the wooden frames which were still there. The small camp of bunkers, about 4 km south of Jaevenitz, was vacant. No guard personnel were seen. Source noticed between 18 and 20 small bunkers for about 6 to 8 soldiers.	sentries wearing received field to section of the interest black epsulets wearing to black epsulets we installation from hauled to meters apart to of Camp Born were personnel wearing proceeded in the wood camp	s only lightly occupy red-bordered black training and instruction instruction. Eight with artillery insignation of the potatoes to the installation of the large wood camp to the large wood camp to the large wood camp to the large wood camp the word filler wood the large wood camp the word the large wood camp the word the large wood camp the woo	ied. The installation of control	on was guarded to 100 soldiers on the north ing red-bordered hare went to the direction of Me	seberg. Huetten d tations, ng lots rrying s of	25X1 25X1
except for small guard details wearing red-bordered black epaulets. The wooden structures were nailed shut and the tents had been removed except for the wooden frames which were still there. The small camp of bunkers, about 4 km south of Jaevenitz, was vacant. No guard personnel were seen. Source noticed between 18 and 20 small bunkers for about 6 to 8 soldiers.	5X1 [from the camps we			the t	anks
CLASSIFICATION SECRET.	4. On 20 October, the except for small			1.	.

	SECR. T]
25X	were interconnected by trenches. 25X1	100
181	5. On 9 October, the tent came on either side of the Jaevenitz-Nottendorf road was removed.	25X1
		23/1
25X	1	1
25X	The lid of an amounition boy was found on the north edge of Letzling Heath	i.
20/	To Cource determined in early October that the large wood car in Room to	* occurried for several menths by a tank unit equipped with J. tanks and MP guns which came from the Alte Infanteric Maserne in Burr (N. 53/Y 81). Lieutenant Colonel Zamzonev (Inu) was supply efficer of this unit. 5 Another came near this one included a "Grosses Lager" which quartered an artillery unit.
25X1	1. Comment. The two barracks installations in Millersleben were a carently only lightly occupied on 20 October 1952. The unit believes stationary stationary
25X1	Comment 2 of the present report. It there form and described
25X1	that at lent some of these units may have moved to headlinburg where, on 17 Cotober, at least a mechanized regiment, possibly of the afore mechanized division, was stationed.	25X1
25X1	20 Comment. The installations in the south section of leading that he was the units of the Third Shock Arm have been occupied only by and headquarters 20 October 1952. Motor vehicles observed in this area belon, to units of the Third Shock Tray including units of the 19th Gds Necro Div, probably from Hillersleben.
	3. Field Comment. On 20 October 1952, the wood came south of Hottendorf no longer
25X1 _	quartered units of the 207th Ntz Rifle Div except for quard details, Elements of this division were seen returning to Stendal on 13 October.	25X1
		ş.
25X1
		e .
25X1	Comments refers to the 136th Gds By Sank Wheet of the product	25X1
25X1	Shock Army Colonel Zamzono / was previously reported as surely officer of this regiment.	25X1
	25X1
	S OF M

Approved For Release 2003/08/12 : CIA-RDP82-00457R015698930002-8